

Language Proficiency Policy	Revised on: May 2025
Next Revision: Jan 2026

Instruction at the ARV Canada College is conducted in English. All prospective students whose first language is not English are required to demonstrate they have the appropriate English language skills to successfully complete their program of study.

Procedure:

Prospective Students whose first language is not English must proof of L

- a) Completion of grades 9-11, including English 11 with a grade of 'C' or higher from a country where English is one of the principal languages, or
- b) Completion of 2 years of full-time post-secondary education at an accredited institution where English is the language of instruction,

OR

Submit the results of one of the following English Language Proficiency tests:

- Canadian English Language Proficiency Index Program (CELPIP-G 2014) (a Canadian English language test for immigration to Canada, Canadian citizenship, and for admission to Canadian universities and colleges) Acceptable level: 6;
- Equivalent Canadian Language Benchmarks (CLB): Score of 6;
- Canadian Academic English Language Assessment (CAEL): Overall score of 60;
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); 75 Internet-based, 210 computer-based, or 520 paper based;
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS): overall score of 6, with a minimum of 5.5 in each section.

Contact Onsite administrator to get all eligible English test scores which are considered equivalent. Any costs related to the taking of one of the English Language Proficiency Tests noted in this policy are the sole responsibility of the prospective student.

Prospective Students who are unable to provide official proof of their English Language Proficiency as set out in this policy will not be admitted into a program of study.